

Credit Card Scam Artists Want To Know Your Credit Card Security Codes

May 11, 2015 — Credit card scam artists are a resourceful bunch. That's why it shouldn't be any surprise that many of them are now involved in telemarketing campaigns that try to trick victims into giving up their credit card security codes. ABC News has put together a short but informative report on the scam that is well worth watching. Even if you don't think that you would fall for this type of fraud, we think you might change your mind about that after see the report.
