

New Tax Scam Targets Accountants and Tax Professionals

October 25, 2017 - The IRS is warning that there is a new phishing tax scam targeting tax preparers. The scam is a phishing attack; using email to target and trick victims into revealing private information in order to steal tax returns.

Tweet

```
(function() {
  var s = document.createElement('SCRIPT'), s1 = document.getElementsByTagName('SCRIPT')[0];
  s.type = 'text/javascript';
  s.src = 'http://widgets.digg.com/buttons.js';
  s1.parentNode.insertBefore(s, s1);
})();
```

```
(function() {
  var po = document.createElement('script'); po.type = 'text/javascript'; po.async = true;
  po.src = 'https://apis.google.com/js/plusone.js';
  var s = document.getElementsByTagName('script')[0]; s.parentNode.insertBefore(po, s);
})();
```

Targeted victims receive an email that appears to come from IRS e-Services Registration with the subject line "Important Update about Your e-Services Account." The body of the message goes on to say, "We are rolling out a new user agreement and all registered users must accept its revised terms to have access to e-Services and its products." It then provides a link for victims to follow.

Anyone who clicks on the link will be taken to a fake, but believable website and prompted to accept the new user agreement and enter a variety of information. Those completing the process run the potential of exposing usernames, passwords, SSNs and a variety of other information to the thieves behind the scam.

Anyone who believes they may have fallen for this scam should contact the IRS's Help Desk at 866-255-0654 for further information on the scam and details about how to protect themselves and their clients from any further damage.

by Jim Malmberg

Note: When posting a comment, please sign-in first if you want a response. If you are not registered, click here. Registration is easy and free.

Follow me on Twitter:

Follow ACCESS

