

Hundreds of Millions Facebook Profiles Available on the Dark Web for 500 Euros

May 1, 2020 - A hacking group has placed a file of 267 million Facebook profiles up for sale on the dark web for 500 Euros, or a little more than $600 US. Most of the profiles appear to be from Americans and they include a variety of personal data including names, user names, phone numbers and ages. Password information isn't included in the file.

Tweet

```
(function() {
var s = document.createElement('SCRIPT'), s1 = document.getElementsByTagName('SCRIPT')[0];
s.type = 'text/javascript';
s.src = 'http://widgets.digg.com/buttons.js';
s1.parentNode.insertBefore(s, s1);
})();
```

```
(function() {
var po = document.createElement('script'); po.type = 'text/javascript'; po.async = true;
po.src = 'https://apis.google.com/js/plusone.js';
var s = document.getElementsByTagName('script')[0]; s.parentNode.insertBefore(po, s);
})();
```

Securityaffairs.co is reporting that the file appears to have been assembled by scraping data from actual Facebook pages. They are also reporting that a second file from a Vietnamese hacking group has been discovered which includes the 267 million profiles mentioned above, along with an additional 42 million profiles.

Anyone with a Facebook account is urged to make sure that they are using a strong password and that their password for Facebook is unique to that site. Using a weak password could lead to having your account taken over and you being locked out of it entirely.

by Jim Malmberg

Note: When posting a comment, please sign-in first if you want a response. If you are not registered, click here. Registration is easy and free.

Follow ACCESS