

Predatory Lenders to Avoid

Below is a list of lenders that everyone should try to avoid if at all possible. These lenders have only their interests at heart. Their goal is to create "credit slaves."

Bank of America

Capital One

Cendant

Chase (now J P Morgan Chase)

Citigroup

or CitiFinancial

or Sears

Discover

Household International

MBNA

(purchased by Bank of America in 2005)

Monogram Credit Card Bank of Georgia
a division of General Electric Corp.

Provident

GE Capital

If you currently have a card bearing any of these names, it is very important to watch your balance, interest rate and due date.

Please see our related section:

Abuses - Games Creditors Play

Please Consider Joining Us

Please join our community and help us fight against these abuses. Your registration shows us you are interested in becoming an informed consumer and feel strongly about these issues. By registering, you will have even more information available via our website.

You will also receive our monthly news-bytes, detailing breaking news in the area of privacy and credit.

Click here to register today.